

DATA SHEET: YELLOW PITAHAYA

Date Revision: 01-07-2022 RGSi No: 40.088364/BA ECO No: xxx	Product:	Variety:	Departure:
	Pitahaya	Golden Yellow Palora....	0810902010

Pitahaya is a fruit that has been known since pre-Hispanic times, used by pre-Inca cultures in ceremonial rituals.

It is also known as Dragon Fruit, in Central America, its name comes from the language spoken in the Antilles and means "scaly fruit". Pitahaya grows in jungle areas, where its first traces appear, however its production has moved to dry coastal and highland areas.

The Pitahaya is attributed with many benefits, it is a source of natural Antioxidant, it contains vitamin C, its content of Captina and Riboflavina (vitamin B2) stands out.

SPECIFICATIONS
PRODUCT:	Fresh Pitahaya
SCIENTIFIC NAME:	Hylocereus monacanthus
COLOUR:	Outside: Yellow/greenish - Inside: Translucent/white with black seeds
SIZE:	9 – 12cm // 375gr-475gr-575gr-675gr
APPEARANCE:	Oval with thornless bracts, the flesh of the Pitahaya is juicy, slightly gelatinous and fibrous, full of small edible black seeds.
SMELL AND TASTE:	Typical of the product, aromatic smell and sweet taste.
BRIX:	18.5°
NUTRITIONAL VALUE:	One of the great benefits of the Pitahaya is the hydration it generates (more than 80% is water). It contains minerals such as P, K, Ca, Mg. High vitamin C content and low calorie content make this fruit a favourite among health food consumers.

PACKAGING INFORMATION:
BRAND:	Pitahaya in generic export carton.
PRESENTATION:	Fruit in plastic flowpack box: 2 pieces. Weight +- 1Kgs. Fruit in bulk box with synthetic straw bedding: Net Weight 4.5Kgs. Fruit in bulk box with synthetic straw bedding: Net Weight 9,2Kgs. 1 pallet = 9x8 cajas x 4,5kg = 324kg . 120x100x160cm (aéreo) 1 pallet = 9x17 cajas x 4,5kg = 688,5kg . 120x100x240cm (marítimo) 20´FCL = 10 PALETS 120X100X240CM 40´FCL = 20 PALETS 120X100X240CM

